

Planned corrections to “the National Survey on Social Security and People's Life in 2022”

August 21, 2025

It has been identified that some cross-tabulation tables in “the National Survey on Social Security and People's Life in 2022” may contain errors. Please keep this in mind when using the data.

Corrected tables and a list of errors will be published at a later date.

The following cross-tabulation tables are scheduled to be corrected.

96) Number of individuals by Years since bereavement/separation and Kessler Psychological Distress Scale K6 score category

180) Number of individuals by Years since bereavement/separation and Current financial conditions

221) Number of individuals by Years married and Frequency of casual conversations

222) Number of individuals by Years since bereavement/separation and Frequency of casual conversations

230) Number of individuals by Years married and Frequency of feelings of loneliness

231) Number of individuals by Years since bereavement/separation and Frequency of feelings of loneliness

242) Number of individuals by Years since bereavement/separation and Awareness of and attitude toward neighbors in need

249) Number of individuals by Years married and Attitudes toward addressing life difficulties and social security systems

250) Number of individuals by Years since bereavement/separation and Attitudes toward addressing life difficulties and social security systems

254) Number of individuals by Years married and Life satisfaction

255) Number of individuals by Years since bereavement/separation and Life satisfaction

263) Number of individuals by Years since bereavement/separation and Presence of someone to rely on

National Institute of Population and Social Security Research (IPSS)